

Masters of Public Administration

Masters in Public Policy and Management

Masters in Public Administration - International Development

CIMA members are entitled to substantial discounts on these innovative and highly-regarded online programmes, offered by one of the leading UK universities for teaching quality and research.

The benefits

Members will receive a 15% discount off the standard fees for the online Masters courses.

Exemptions from some modules are available, depending on the individual member's previous qualifications and experience.

A distinctive approach to online learning: interactive, effective and high quality, supporting skills development in an international context.

Part-time online qualifications – designed to be studied alongside full-time employment

The programmes

These are professional development programmes at postgraduate level, designed for those working in or with public services who wish to further develop their skills and capacity to be effective leaders, managers or analysts in this field.

We offer:

- structured, yet flexible part-time study
- high quality, tailored content
- active, international distance learning
- excellent support
- the opportunity to reflect on, consolidate and develop your professional practice

Programmes are available online as postgraduate Certificate, Diploma and Masters courses.

The Masters in Public Policy and Management (PPM) develops skills and understanding for the development, delivery, analysis and evaluation of public policy.

The Masters of Public Administration (MPA) is concerned with the delivery and management of public services, within the context of the current modernising agenda. Its central focus is on the skills involved in leading and delivering services, and in innovation and change in public service environments

The Masters of Public Administration – International Development (MPA ID) is intended to enhance your capacity to influence, contribute to or lead the international development agenda at local, national or international levels.

Further Information

Online Masters programmes in Public Management.

Helen Smith, Programme Manager
spsw-online@york.ac.uk