This month will see the publication of ‘Accounting for sustainability – practical insights’ which has been co-sponsored by CIMA as part of our participation in the Prince of Wales’ Accounting for Sustainability project.

The book contains a series of case studies showing how a range of leading organisations such as Aviva, HSBC and BT have embedded sustainability into their decision making and reporting.

To find out more, visit earthscan.

CIMA members can receive a 20% discount by quoting CIMA in the voucher code box when placing an order.

What did you think of this article? Please email insight@cimaglobal.com with editorial comments and queries.

Insight is the global e-magazine for management accountants.